Big Farm Bird Count 7 – 16 February 2020

Time to start planning the Big Farmland Bird Count (BFBC) back for the 7th year.

This nationwide citizen science project takes just 30 minutes spotting birds on your land and is a great opportunity of showing what your conservation efforts deliver on the ground. GWCT who run the count hope that it will act as a catalyst for you to start building your own long-standing wildlife records.

How to take part in three simple steps

- 1) Download your count sheet from the BFBC website www.bfbc.org.uk
- 2) Count your birds! On a day between 7th and 16th February, spend about 30 minutes recording the species and number of birds seen on one particular area of the farm.
- 3) Once you've completed your count, simply submit your results at www.bfbc.org.uk

It's a great chance for local birders and farmers to team up and do the survey together.

If you want help to find someone to collaborate with please contact Tony Norman Email: tony@theleen.co.uk

The Wye & Usk Foundation – Here to Help Update on the projects running in Herefordshire!

➤ Natural Flood Management: There is still grant available during 2020 in target catchments to support delivery of actions that will increase water holding capacity. So far >£30k has been offered for grassland aeration, subsoiling, cover cropping, attenuation ponds, hedge planting and leaky dams! To find out more about the target catchments visit:

<https://www.herefordshire.gov.uk/info/200196/roads/345/flooding/6>

➤ Pesticides: Application window for the Severn Trent STEPS Grant Scheme has been extended to the end of Feb. It is restricted to the Drinking Water Safe Guarding Zone which follows the main rivers so if you farm on the main stem of the Wye, Lugg or Frome and would like to improve a pesticide handling area or biobed/biofilter please contact Mike or Abi on the details below. STEPS is a competitive scheme and can also support biodiversity options like buffer strips, winter bird food and pollen mixes.

➤ Water Quality: The levels of phosphate in the rivers and streams is still higher than it should be and we are working hard to support local farmers to reduce losses from agricultural sources – which still contributes 50% of the P in our rivers. We are able to provide free confidential farm advice for any yard or land management challenges you may be facing. We can provide soil structure assessments, OM testing, yard advice, stewardship advice etc across the entire county – if you'd like help with anything please contact one of our advisers:

Catchment Sensitive Farming (CSF)

Free Advice and Farm Visits

Water Quality We continue to offer farm visits and advice on a wide range of areas that will improve water quality and water management in addition to support for Countryside Stewardship Water Quality Capital items on priority holdings.

Air Quality Would you like to understand what air quality and ammonia means for your farm? Following the launch of Defra's Clean Air Strategy in 2019 CSF are offering advice and events on improving air quality and reducing ammonia emissions, in addition to their current advice on water quality. If you are a dairy, beef or free range poultry unit (less than 40,000 birds) and would be interested in hearing more, please contact your local Catchment Sensitive Farming Officer (CSFO) or book into the event on 4th Feb.

Specialist Advice Visits

Catchment Sensitive Farmers Officers (CSFO) are now able to offer around thirty different specialist advice visits for priority farms within the Wye catchment. Several of these are new to the project, having been designed to meet industry demands. These include:

Assessment and Monitoring of Soil Health An in-depth assessment of soil health through a combination of approaches, including detailed soil nutrient analysis, profile and field examination. Recommendations will be provided to help improve soil condition, increase plant growth and reduce erosion, weed, pest and disease problems, while improving air and water quality.

Water Resources Audit Would you like to improve your farm's resilience to drought, regulatory changes and identify options for the most effective water storage and efficiencies? This new visit will advise on water resource risks and make detailed, farm-specific recommendations on options to ensure water resilience and efficiency.

Woodland for Water and Air This visit will investigate whether woodland creation or management on your farm could provide additional benefits for water and air quality, as well as business opportunities (e.g. wood fuels, stock shelter). Bespoke advice will also be given on location and design of woodland or tree planting, and available grants

If you would like advice on how to improve air and water quality please contact your local CSFO for a free confidential chat.

WM Police Rural Business Crime Team

Message from Paul Crumpton

As we begin 2020 I thought it appropriate to let you know of the continuing increase in the numbers of Police Officers to Herefordshire.

“Not before time “I hear you say and “Never see one around my area”

Well, if you haven't seen any, you will! and for some in our communities that might not be good news, I will explain.....

Let me introduce you to a couple of names, Pc Sarah Smith and Pc John Meek who have joined me as the Rural & Business Crime team since the beginning of November and who many of you will already know or have heard of I am sure. Both are vastly experienced Officers who have a passion (and pride) for our Rural Communities and who are focussing on those who look to cause most harm, steal, poach and handle stolen property, to name just a few, in our Rural areas.

They have already been particularly active in disrupting criminality, recovering stolen property and dealing with offenders, with a real focus on Rural Crime and here is the request of you.

If you see suspicious activity report it..... if you think you know who has committed crime report it..... if you are a victim of crime report it.....

You can do this via a phone call on 101 for a non- emergency or 999 in an emergency or via Crime stoppers if you want to remain 100% anonymous 0800 555 111

If you want to pass some information direct, (excluding reporting a crime) you can contact me on the details below.
